

September 2018

ANTHONY ATTIA - BIOGRAPHY

Anthony Attia is a member of Euronext's Managing Board, Chairman and CEO of Euronext Paris, Global Head of Listing and Post Trade for Euronext.

Mr. Attia has more than 20 years of experience in the Exchange industry. Recent achievements include the successful launch of Euronext Corporate Services and the company's EU Tech hub initiative.

He has held a number of responsibilities including market operations, strategy, mergers and integration at Euronext. He is a recognized expert in market structure, post-trade and trading technology. He has occupied key roles in the company at each step of the consolidation of European markets, the merger with NYSE and the transaction with ICE.

Mr. Attia was Chief of Staff to the President and Deputy CEO of NYSE Euronext from 2009 to 2013, based in New York. In 2008, he was appointed Senior Vice President in charge of the Universal Trading Platform (UTP), the common trading platform for NYSE Euronext's European and US markets. From 2004 to 2007, he served as Executive Director, Head of Operations for Euronext. In 2000, he was the Program Director for the integration of the newly created Euronext, in charge of migrating the French, Belgian and Dutch exchanges to the Single Order Book.

Mr. Attia is a Board member and Audit Committee member of LCH S.A. He is also Chairman of LiquidShare, a blockchain company improving European SME's post trading and access to capital markets. He is a member of the AMF Markets and Exchanges commission and a Director of Euronext Dublin, EnterNext, SICOVAM and AMAFI. He holds an Engineering degree in computer science, mathematics, finance and studied at INSEAD.